E. PRESENTATIONS

Parks & Facility Usage

Central Park is becoming a popular place for various Special Events. Rental of park pavilions and the Community Center by citizens is dropping off at an increasing rate.

Community Activities Center

Center Stage is presented the second Friday of every month. At this point there is approximately 100 citizens attending on a regular basis. The next Special Event will be Family Fun Day at Ralph Carter Park.

Adult Education Programs

Holland Park is being used on a regular basis by Adult Ed. They are currently in their Fall A programming and offer piano, voice, guitar, dog obedience training, drawing, painting and belly dancing at this facility.

Frieda Zamba

We have 35 new classes that will be open for registration for our Fall A session. We are expecting a great turnout. Oel made mention that different schools in the county are interested in utilizing our Spanish and story teller teachers from PC Kids for their schools.

Tennis Center

There are many new classes that will be available during our Fall Program. We are expecting an increased turnout for these sessions.

Recreational/Athletic Programs

Youth Athletics will be starting up with the new school year. We will be having an after school sports program at every school within the city limits of Palm Coast. We will be focusing on flag football for the first 9 weeks of school, and then moving on to a different sport every 9 weeks.
